

MODESTY means not showing off, or being humble about the things that I can do. With your parents, read the stories below, and decide if the person is showing MODESTY or just showing off, and circle the right answer

1. Amber got her test back in class today. She got a perfect score! As soon as she gets the test back, she jumps up in the air and does a dance, singing “I got 100%! I am the smartest!!”

MODESTY

SHOW-OFF

2. As Johnny is practicing his karate one day, his friend sees him and asks Johnny to show him some of his karate moves. Johnny agrees, and does his best karate moves for his friend, then tries his best to show his friend how to do some of the moves

MODESTY

SHOW-OFF

3. In PE class, the teacher tells the class that they’re gonna run from one side of the playground to the other. Becca turns to her friend Molly and says “I bet I can beat you!”

MODESTY

SHOW-OFF

4. For show-and-tell, Hayden decides he wants to bring his nunchucks and show his class the nunchuck routine he’s been practicing. At show-and-tell, he performs as best he can, bows to the class as they clap for him

MODESTY

SHOW-OFF

5. Lily is a little nervous about a test at school. Her friend Katie is really smart, and she offers to help Lily get ready for the test. Every time they start to study, Katie tells Lily “I already knew the answer to that one! It’s really easy! Why don’t you get it?”

MODESTY

SHOW-OFF

6. As Anakin Skywalker squares off against Count Dooku on General Greivous’ flagship, Anakin boasts “my power has doubled since the last time we met”

MODESTY

SHOW-OFF